FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CELEBRATE SAN CLEMENTE DAY

February 17, 2017...San Clemente, California... The City of San Clemente is pleased to announce San Clemente Day to be celebrated on Saturday, February 25, 2017. This day will be dedicated to honoring the history and heritage of San Clemente. To recognize this historic day, the Beaches, Parks & Recreation Department is excited to offer FREE swimming at both City operated aquatics facilities.

You and your family are invited to swim for free on February 25th at the newly-renovated historic Ole Hanson Beach Club from 10:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. or join us at the state-of-the-art San Clemente Aquatics Center for lap swimming from 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. and bring the kids, of all ages, for recreation swim from 12:00 to 4:00 p.m. During the day, participants can relax poolside with music or jump in and play games led by the San Clemente Pool Lifeguards.

Revelers in San Clemente Day will also have the opportunity to receive free San Clemente “swag” and giveaways at both celebration sites, including stickers, sweet treats, and more! A limited quantity of commemorative T-shirts displaying the San Clemente crest will be available for purchase at both locations for a nominal fee. For more information on this first annual event, check our YouTube Channel or contact the City of San Clemente Recreation Division at (949) 361-8264 or (949) 429-8797.
