2. MINUTES

A. It was moved by Paula Kohl and seconded by Burton Wagner and carried 6-1 with Brenda Wells abstaining, to receive and file the minutes from the Human Affairs Committee of August 14, 2018.

3. PUBLIC TESTIMONY

A. Teri Steel, with Community Outreach Alliance (COA)

Community Outreach Alliance (COA) is a non-profit organization serving San Clemente since 2014 to foster a positive solution for the young people in the community who were battling the throes of drug use, addiction, and depression.

B. Mary Perdue, Executive Director with Family Assistance Ministries (FAM), gave an update on FAM's outreach and help with the homeless community. FAM will be holding their 31st Annual Hunger Walk on Sunday, October 21, 2018.

4. UNFINISHED BUSINESS

None

5. NEW BUSINESS AND UPDATES

- A. Grant Recipients Activities Calendar was reviewed and distributed by Paula Kohl. Paula Kohl will maintain and update the activities calendar with events sponsored by local non-profit organizations.
- B. Committee discussed which organizations to invite to future meetings.
- C. Carl Stiehl, Senior Planner, reviewed the City's community grant application process, budget, and deadlines.
- D. Sphere of Influence Updates – Committee members

Brenda Wells updated the Committee on a recent California law passed that requires hotel hospitality have training in human trafficking. Her organization, I-5 Freedom Network, has a program that teaches professional and development skills of survivors of human trafficking.

Paula Kohl would like to suggest each new Council Member attends at least one Human Affairs Committee.

Burton Wagner had 12-hour post on social media asking the community their top priority to be addressed within San Clemente. Based on his feedback, homelessness, sober living, and San Onofre Nuclear Generating Station's nuclear waste were the top three priorities.

6. COMMUNICATIONS FROM CITY STAFF AND COMMITTEE MEMBERS

- A. Staff distributed the tentative 2019 Human Affairs Committee meeting dates.
- B. Committee members reminded to check their City address emails regularly.
