Spanish type homes

Historical images courtesy of the San Clemente Historical Society. All rights reserved.
Original City Hall

Historical images courtesy of the San Clemente Historical Society. All rights reserved.
By 1928, the residents own, free and clear:
3000 feet of beach

Historical images courtesy of the San Clemente Historical Society. All rights reserved.
Fishing pier

Historical images courtesy of the San Clemente Historical Society. All rights reserved.
Municipal golf course

Historical images courtesy of the San Clemente Historical Society. All rights reserved.
Swim club

Historical images courtesy of the San Clemente Historical Society. All rights reserved.
Social club

Historical images courtesy of the San Clemente Historical Society. All rights reserved.
Equestrian trails

Historical images courtesy of the San Clemente Historical Society. All rights reserved.
Stables

Historical images courtesy of the San Clemente Historical Society. All rights reserved.
Stables became hospital

Historical images courtesy of the San Clemente Historical Society. All rights reserved.
Plaza park

Historical images courtesy of the San Clemente Historical Society. All rights reserved.
Public school

Historical images courtesy of the San Clemente Historical Society. All rights reserved.
Water system

Historical images courtesy of the San Clemente Historical Society. All rights reserved.
Streets, sidewalks, shrubs, utilities...

Historical images courtesy of the San Clemente Historical Society. All rights reserved.
Additional properties of note:
St. Clement’s Church

Historical images courtesy of the San Clemente Historical Society. All rights reserved.
Baseball field

Historical images courtesy of the San Clemente Historical Society. All rights reserved.
Train station

Historical images courtesy of the San Clemente Historical Society. All rights reserved.
Depression hits

Historical images courtesy of the San Clemente Historical Society. All rights reserved.
Hanson residence sold

The Magnificent
Hacienda San Clemente
Is for Sale or for Rent

Here is a home for any who seek the allures of old Santa Barbara and things, graced with the sunny, rare and rare goods of a modern-day plan. Surrounded by its beautiful views of the surrounding, unspoiled scenery - built on an ancient mound overlooking the Pacific - the magnificent 20-room "Hacienda San Clemente" awaits your inspection.

The Magnificent Hacienda San Clemente is a dream home, with its 3-story tower, 20-foot high main entrance hall, 10-foot-high ceilings, and a large formal living and dining room overlooking the majestic view. The property is beautifully landscaped with a fountain, pool, and an outdoor kitchen area.

FOR RENT
$150 Per Month
SUPERBLY FURNISHED
Inspection Appointments May Be Arranged Through

The Capital Company
BANK OF AMERICA BLDG., SAN CLEMENTE

FOR SALE
$25,000 on Terms

Historical images courtesy of the San Clemente Historical Society. All rights reserved.
San Clemente’s Historic Contexts

1. Native American Inhabitants
2. European Settlement (1542 – 1924)
3. Ole Hanson and the Spanish Village (1925 – 1936)